

Sopra Steria wins the Overall Grand Prix at the 2025 Transparency Awards

- Sopra Steria has won the Overall Grand Prix at the 2025 Transparency Awards, achieving the highest overall score among SBF 120 companies across 360 evaluation criteria.
- This accolade recognises the quality, clarity and transparency of the Group's published financial and non-financial information.
- It demonstrates Sopra Steria's ongoing commitment to building a sustainable relationship of trust with its shareholders, investors and all its stakeholders.

Paris, July 3, 2025 – Sopra Steria, a major player in the European tech sector, has been awarded the Overall Grand Prix at the 16th edition of the Transparency Awards. This prize recognises the SBF 120 company with the highest overall score across all 360 evaluation criteria defined by the Scientific Committee of the Transparency Awards.

After placing second in 2024, Sopra Steria has taken a further step forward this year, praised for the quality, clarity and transparency of its financial and non-financial disclosures, assessed through three key materials: the Universal Registration Document, the Annual General Meeting notice brochure, and the Investor Relations section of its website.

This award reflects Sopra Steria's commitment to providing reference-quality, accessible and reliable information for the benefit of its shareholders, investors and all stakeholders. It underlines the Group's determination to go beyond regulatory requirements to build a strong relationship of trust, creating value and positive impact.

Sopra Steria welcomes this recognition, which highlights the collective efforts of its teams. Building on this momentum, the Group will continue to innovate and advance, making high-quality information a key lever for its sustainable performance and corporate responsibility.
