A combined general meeting held on 30 June 2003 changed the Company's administration and management structure and opted for management by a Management Board (Directoire) and a Supervisory Board (Conseil de Surveillance).

A combined general meeting held on 30 May 2006 changed the Company's administration and management structure and reverted to management by a Board of Directors.

The Company continues to exist under its new administration and management structure between the owners of existing shares and the owners of shares that may be created subsequently.

The Company shall be governed by the laws and regulations in force and by this articles of association (statuts).

To create or acquire, and operate, all other business assets or all establishments of a similar nature.

And, in general, to engage in all commercial, financial or real or personal property transactions that may be directly or indirectly related to the corporate objects or that may facilitate the expansion or development thereof, acting alone, by acquiring equity interests or by forming companies with other companies or persons.

ARTICLE 3 - COMPANY NAME

The Company's name is: Sopra Steria Group.

All instruments and documents issued by the Company shall state the company name, immediately preceded or followed by the words "société anonyme" or the initials "S.A.", and the amount of the share capital.

It may be transferred anywhere in France by simple decision of the Board of Directors, subject to ratification at the next Ordinary General Meeting.

If in accordance with the law the Board of Directors decides to transfer the registered office, the Board of Directors shall be authorised to amend the articles of association accordingly.

The Board of Directors may create, transfer and close all establishments, agencies, warehouses and branches, wherever it may deem necessary.

ARTICLE 5 - TERM

5.1. The Company's term, initially set at 50 years, was extended by a resolution at the Extraordinary General Meeting of 19 January 2012; as such, it shall expire on 19 June 2111 unless the Company is dissolved before such date or its term is extended.

5.2. At least one year before the expiry date of the Company's term, the Board of Directors shall convene an extraordinary general meeting of the shareholders for the purpose of deciding whether the Company's term should be extended. Failing this, after having unsuccessfully made a demand on the Company, any shareholder may request the Presiding Judge of the Commercial Court with jurisdiction over the registered office, ruling pursuant to an ex parte application, to appoint a judicial representative charged with convening the meeting and reaching the decision described above.

ARTICLE 6 - CONTRIBUTIONS

The contributions made to the Company since its incorporation are detailed in the Annex.

ARTICLE 7 - SHARE CAPITAL

The share capital is set at €20,547,701.

It is divided into 20,547,701 shares with a par value of 1 euro each, fully subscribed and distributed among the shareholders in proportion to their rights.

ARTICLE 8 - CHANGES TO SHARE CAPITAL

1. The share capital may be increased by any means and by all procedures authorised by law.

The share capital may be increased by issuing new ordinary or preference shares or by increasing the par value of existing shares. It may also be increased by exercising the rights attached to securities that confer equity rights, in accordance with the requirements prescribed by law.

Only an extraordinary general meeting, acting pursuant to a report of the Board of Directors, has the power to decide an immediate or future capital increase. It may delegate this power to the Board of Directors, in accordance with the requirements laid down in law. The Board of Directors may sub-delegate this power to the Chief Executive Officer, or, by agreement with the latter, to one or more Deputy Chief Executive Officers, in accordance with legal requirements and within the limits of the conditions previously laid down by the Board of Directors.

If an extraordinary general meeting decides to increase the share capital, it may delegate to the Board of Directors the power to set the terms and conditions applicable to the securities issue.

Shareholders have a pre-emptive right, in proportion to the number of shares they hold, to subscribe for cash shares issued in connection with a capital increase. Shareholders may waive this right individually. In accordance with legal requirements, an extraordinary general meeting may decide to suspend this pre-emptive subscription right.

If a general meeting or, in the event of a delegation of authority, the Board of Directors, has expressly decided, shares not subscribed non-reducibly shall be allocated to shareholders who subscribe reducibly for a higher number of shares than that to which they are entitled by their pre-emptive subscription right, in proportion to their subscription rights and, in any event, within the limit of their requests.

The right to be allotted new shares subsequent to a capitalisation of reserves, profits or issue premiums shall be held by the legal owner, subject to the rights of the beneficial owner.

At the time of any decision to increase the share capital in consideration for cash contributions, except if the capital increase results from a prior issue of securities that confer equity rights, an extraordinary general meeting shall vote on a draft resolution proposing a capital increase reserved for the Company's employees.

Furthermore, every three years, an Extraordinary General Meeting shall be held to vote on a resolution proposing a capital increase reserved for the Company's employees if, pursuant to a report presented to the general meeting by the Board of Directors in accordance with the law, shares held by the employees of the Company and affiliated companies, as defined in law, represent less than three percent of the share capital.

2. Capital decreases shall be authorised or decided by an extraordinary general meeting, but such capital decreases shall in no event diminish the equality of shareholders.

A decrease in share capital to an amount less than the statutory minimum can be decided only if it is subject to the condition precedent that it shall be followed by a capital increase raising share capital to an amount at least equal to the statutory minimum, unless the Company is converted into a company of another form that does not require a higher amount of capital than the share capital after the capital decrease.

In the event of non-compliance with this provision, any interested party may bring an action for dissolution of the Company. The Court shall not order dissolution if, on the day it rules on the merits, the situation has been rectified.

3. The share capital may be redeemed in accordance with the requirements laid down in law.

ARTICLE 9 - PAYMENT FOR SHARES

In the case of a capital increase, at least one-quarter of the par value of cash shares and, if applicable, the full amount of the issue premium, shall be paid at the time of the subscription.

Payment of the balance shall be made in one or more instalments, pursuant to a call for funds by the Board of Directors, within a period of five years from the date on which the capital increase becomes final.

Subscribers shall be informed of calls for funds at least fifteen days prior to the date set for each payment, by a recorded delivery letter (signed for) sent to each shareholder.

Any delay in the payment of amounts owed on the unpaid price of shares shall automatically oblige the shareholder to pay interest at the legal rate of interest as from the due date, without prejudice to any personal action the Company may initiate against the shareholder in default or its right to obtain the enforcement measures provided by law.

Furthermore, if the calls for funds have not been made within the statutory time period, any interested party may request the Presiding Judge of the Court, ruling pursuant to an ex parte application, to order the directors to issue such calls for funds, subject to a penalty for non-compliance, or to appoint a judicial representative charged with carrying out such formality.

ARTICLE 10 - FORM OF THE SHARES

In the case of bearer shares, the Company may at any time, in accordance with legislation and regulations in force, request from the central depository information about the number of shares held and any restrictions to which they may be subject, together with the name or company name, nationality, year of birth or year of incorporation, postal address and, where known, e-mail address of the holders of such shares giving immediate or eventual rights to vote at shareholders' meetings. This information shall be provided to the Company accordance with legal requirements.

However, the persons referred to in Article L. 225-109 of the French Commercial Code are required, in accordance with the provisions of said article, to have the shares put into registered form or to deposit the shares owned by them or their unemancipated minor children with a bank, an authorised financial institution or an investment services provider.

ARTICLE 11 - SHARE TRANSFERS - IDENTIFICATION OF SHAREHOLDERS

Shares shall be registered in an account opened, in accordance with legal provisions, by the issuing company or a financial intermediary approved by the Ministry of Economy and Finance.

The ownership of bearer shares shall be effective upon their registration in an account maintained by an authorised financial intermediary.

Shares that are required to be in registered form may be traded on the stock market only if they have been previously deposited in an administration account with an authorised intermediary.

Shares that are not required to be in registered form may be traded on the stock exchange only if they have been converted into bearer shares.

If the shares have not been paid in full, the transfer order must also be signed by the transferee.

Transfers of shares without consideration or by inheritance shall also be made by a transfer from one account to another, upon proof that the conveyance has been carried out in accordance with legal requirements.

Share transfer costs shall be borne by the transferee.

Shares for which all amounts owed have not been paid in full shall not be eligible for transfer.

The Company may at any time, at its own expense, in accordance with the statutory and regulatory requirements in force, request the "central depository" that maintains its securities issue account to provide it with, as applicable, the name or company name, nationality, year of birth or year of incorporation and address of the holders of securities that confer voting rights, immediately or in the future, at its shareholders' meetings, as well as the number of securities held by each one and, if applicable, any restrictions that may be imposed on the securities.

Shares shall be freely transferable, unless otherwise provided by statutory or regulatory provisions. Shares are transferred by a transfer from one account to another.

ARTICLE 12 - RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS PERTAINING TO SHARES

1. Each share confers the right to a share of the profits, corporate assets and liquidation surplus in proportion to the amount of capital it represents.

In addition, each share confers the right to vote and to be represented at general meetings, as well as the right to be informed about the Company's operations and to be provided with certain corporate documents at the times and in accordance with the conditions prescribed by law and the articles of association.

2. Shareholders shall be liable for corporate liabilities only up to the amounts of their contributions.

The rights and obligations pertaining to shares shall be transferred to each successive holder thereof.

Ownership of a share shall be deemed automatic agreement with the Company's articles of association and the decisions of general meetings.

3. Whenever it is necessary to hold a certain number of shares to exercise any right whatsoever, the holders of less than the requisite number of shares shall personally arrange to pool and, if necessary, to purchase or sell the necessary number of shares.

ARTICLE 13 - INDIVISIBILITY OF SHARES - LEGAL OWNERSHIP - BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP

1. Shares are indivisible vis-à-vis the Company.

Joint owners of undivided joint shares shall be represented at general meetings by one of the joint owners or by a single representative. In the event of a disagreement, the representative shall be appointed by court order pursuant to an application filed by the first joint owner to act.

2. The voting right shall be held by the beneficial owner at ordinary general meetings and by the legal owner at extraordinary general meetings. However, shareholders may agree on any other allocation of voting rights at general meetings. The Company shall be informed of such agreement by recorded delivery letter. The Company shall be required to apply such agreement for all general meetings held more than one month after such letter is sent.

However, the legal owner has the right to attend all general meetings. The legal owner's voting right may never be completely eliminated. The beneficial owner may not be deprived of the right to vote on decisions concerning the allocation of profits.

Voting rights shall be exercised by the owners of pledged shares.

ARTICLE 14 - BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Company is administered by a Board of Directors comprising a minimum of three members and a maximum of eighteen, subject to the exception provided for by law in the event of a merger.

The Directors representing the employees are not taken into account when determining the minimum and maximum number of Directors.

1. Term of office of Directors appointed at the General Meeting and Directors representing the employees

Directors' terms last six years. By exception, upon their first appointment following 1 January 2018, Directors' terms of office may be set at 1, 2, 3, 4 or 5 years such that directorships are renewed on a staggered basis every two years.

In the year of expiry, Directors' terms of office shall expire at the close of the Ordinary General Meeting convened to approve the financial statements for the previous financial year. They are immediately eligible for reappointment.

2. Directors appointed at the General Meeting

No one can be appointed a Director if, having exceeded the age of seventy-five years, his/her appointment results in more than one-third of the Directors exceeding this age. Once this limit is exceeded, the oldest Director is deemed to have resigned from office.

Directors may be natural or legal persons. When a legal person is appointed as Director, the latter names a permanent representative who is subject to the same conditions, obligations and liabilities as all other Board members, without prejudice to the joint and several liability of the legal person thus represented.

In the event of one or more vacancies on the Board of Directors, between two General Meetings, the Board may make temporary appointments, in accordance with the requirements of Article L. 225-24 of the French Commercial Code. A Director appointed to replace another Director performs his/her duties for the remainder of the term of office of the individual previously serving in this position.

3. Director representing the employees

In accordance with the provisions of the French Commercial Code relating to Directors representing employees, whenever the number of Directors appointed at the General Meeting pursuant to Articles L. 225-17 and L. 225-18 of the French Commercial Code and in accordance with these Articles of Association is less than or equal to twelve, a Director representing the employees is nominated by the Company's works council.

Whenever this number is greater than 12, a second Director representing the employees is nominated by the Company's works council. If this number should fall to 12 or below, the second Director representing the employees shall continue to serve for his/her full term of office.

The Director or Directors representing the employees are not required to hold shares in the Company.

Provisions of the Articles of Association relating to Directors representing the employees shall cease to apply, with no impact on directorships still in force, when, at the end of a financial year, the Company no longer fulfils the prerequisites for their appointment.

Further to the provisions set out in paragraph 2 of Article L. 225-29 of the French Commercial Code, should the Company body designated in these Articles of Association fail to nominate a Director representing the employees, the decisions of the Board of Directors shall still be deemed to be valid.

ARTICLE 15 - ORGANISATION OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Chairman shall be appointed for a term that may not exceed his/her term of office as Director. The Chairman may be reappointed. The Board may remove the Chairman from office at any time.

No one over the age of 89 may be appointed Chairman. If the Chairman in office exceeds this age, he/she shall automatically be deemed to have resigned.

The Board may appoint one or two Vice-Chairmen from among the Directors.

It can also appoint a secretary who need not be a Director or shareholder.

In the event of the Chairman's absence, Board meetings shall be chaired by any person specifically delegated for this purpose by the Chairman. In the absence of this individual, the Board meeting shall be chaired by one of the Vice-Chairmen.

ARTICLE 16 - DECISIONS OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

third party was aware, or that in light of the circumstances could not have been unaware, that the act was not within said corporate objects. However, the mere publication of the articles of association shall not constitute such proof.

The Board of Directors shall carry out all controls and verifications it deems necessary. Each director is entitled to be provided with all documents and information necessary for the performance of his duties.

The Board may grant all agents of its choice all delegations of authority, within the limits of the powers it holds pursuant to law and this articles of association.

The Company shall be bound by acts of the Chief Executive Officer that exceed the scope of the corporate objects, unless the Company is able to prove that the third party was aware or that in light of the circumstances could not have been unaware, that the act was not within said corporate objects. However, the mere publication of the articles of association shall not be sufficient to constitute such proof.

3 - Executive Vice-Presidents

Pursuant to the recommendation of the Chief Executive Officer, whether this position is held by the Chairman of the Board of Directors or another person, the Board of Directors may appoint one or more individuals charged with assisting the Chief Executive Officer, who shall hold the title of Executive Vice-President (Directeur Général Délégué).

ARTICLE 21 - MULTIPLE OFFICES

An individual shall not simultaneously hold more than five offices as a director or a member of the Supervisory Board of sociétés anonymes that have their registered offices in France.

By exception to the foregoing provisions and for the purposes of applying this article, offices held by a person as a Director or member of the Supervisory Board of a company that is controlled, within the meaning of Article L. 233-16 of the French Commercial Code, by the company in which that person is a Director shall not be taken into account for these purposes.

For the purpose of applying the foregoing provisions, positions as director held in companies whose shares are not admitted to trade on a regulated market and that are controlled, within the meaning of Article L. 233-16 of the French Commercial Code, by the same company shall count as a single office, provided the number of offices held in this manner does not exceed five.

On expiry of the three-month period, the person is automatically dismissed and must return the compensation received, although the validity of the deliberations in which he or she took part is not called into question.

At least 35 days before each shareholders’ meeting, the Company shall publish in the “Bulletin des Annonces Légales Obligatoires” the notice required by Article R. 225-73 of the French Commercial Code.

Shareholders who have held registered shares for at least one month prior to the date on which the notice of meeting is published shall be given notice of all shareholders’ meetings by ordinary mail.

However, they may provide the Company with an agreement in writing allowing electronic transmission instead of postal delivery. Shareholders shall provide the Company with their email address for this purpose. Shareholders may also at any time request, in a letter sent by recorded delivery (signed for), that postal delivery be used instead of electronic transmission.

Shareholders may request that they be provided with notice of all general meetings by recorded delivery if they provide the Company with the funds necessary to cover the cost of such delivery.

In the event that the general meeting is unable to deliberate because the required quorum is not present, a second meeting, and if applicable, a deferred second meeting, shall be convened at least six days in advance in the same manner as the first meeting.

The publication and letters giving notice of this second meeting shall restate the date and agenda of the first meeting. If the date of a general meeting is postponed by court order, the court may set a different time period.

The publication and letters giving notice of meetings shall contain the information required by law.

ARTICLE 27 - AGENDA

One or more shareholders representing at least the portion of share capital required by law and acting in accordance with legal requirements and time periods, may request that specific items of business or draft resolutions be added to the General Meeting's agenda.

The works council (comité d'entreprise) may also request that draft resolutions be added to the agenda of general meetings.

A general meeting shall not deliberate on a matter of business that is not included in the agenda. However, a general meeting can in all circumstances dismiss and replace one or more directors.

ARTICLE 28 - ADMISSION TO MEETINGS - POWERS - COMPOSITION

General meetings shall include all shareholders, regardless of the number of shares they hold, who may participate personally or by proxy.

All shareholders have the right to participate in general meetings provided they furnish proof, in accordance with legal and regulatory requirements, that their shares are registered in accounts in their names or on their behalf in the name of their registered intermediary, or in the registered share accounts kept by the Company, or in the bearer share accounts kept by an authorised intermediary.

Any shareholder may be represented by his or her spouse, the partner with whom he or she has entered into a pacte civil de solidarité (PACS, the French civil union contract), another shareholder or any other other private individual or legal entity of his or her choice; in the case of proxies given by a shareholder without specifying the name of the proxy holder, the chairman of the general meeting shall cast a vote in favour of the adoption of draft resolutions submitted or approved by the Board of Directors and a vote against the adoption of all other draft resolutions. To cast any other vote, a shareholder must choose a proxy who agrees to vote as indicated by the principal.

The legal representatives of shareholders who lack legal capacity and individuals representing shareholders that are legal entities may participate in general meetings whether or not they are shareholders.

If the Board of Directors so decides at the time it convenes a general meeting, shareholders may also participate in said meeting by videoconference or any other means of telecommunications or electronic transmission, including the internet, that meets the conditions prescribed by the laws and regulations applicable at the time of the use thereof.

Shareholders who participate in a general meeting by videoconference or other means of telecommunications that enables them to be identified in a manner and in accordance with procedures in compliance with statutory and regulatory provisions shall be deemed present for the purposes of calculating the quorum and majority.

All shareholders may vote by post using the form prepared and sent by the Company in accordance with statutory and regulatory requirements. To be taken into account, such form must be received by the Company at least three days before the date of the meeting.

Two works council members, appointed by the works council in accordance with legal provisions, may attend general meetings. At their request, they shall be heard during the deliberations of all matters requiring a unanimous vote of the shareholders.

ARTICLE 29 - VOTING RIGHTS

The voting right attached to equity or dividend shares is proportional to the share of the capital such shares represent. Each share with the same par value confers the right to the same number of votes, with a minimum of one vote.

However, double voting rights are allocated to all fully paid-up shares that are proved to have been registered in the name of the same holder for at least two years up to that time. In the event of a capital increase by capitalisation of reserves, earnings or issue premiums, double voting rights shall be allocated upon issuance to registered shares freely granted to a shareholder in proportion to existing shares for which this shareholder was entitled to benefit from this right.

ARTICLE 30 - SHAREHOLDERS' RIGHT TO INFORMATION - OBLIGATION TO PROVIDE INFORMATION

All shareholders are entitled to obtain the documents necessary to enable them to make informed decisions regarding the management and operations of the Company.

The types of documents, and the requirements for sending them or placing them at the shareholders' disposal, are established by the laws and regulations.

Any shareholder whose equity stake exceeds the thresholds of three or four percent of the share capital shall inform the Company in the same form and in accordance with the same calculations as required by law for higher equity stakes.

ARTICLE 31 - ATTENDANCE SHEET - OFFICERS - MINUTES

An attendance sheet, duly signed by the shareholders present and by the proxies, stating the names of shareholders present by telecommunication means, and to which shall be appended the proxy forms given to each proxy and, if applicable, the postal voting forms, shall be certified as accurate by the officers of the general meeting.

General meetings shall be chaired by the Chairman of the Board of Directors or, in the absence thereof, by a Vice-Chairman or a director specifically appointed for such purpose by the Board. Failing this, the general meeting shall elect its own chairman.

The two shareholders representing the greatest number of votes, both personally and as proxies, who are present and who agree, shall act as scrutineers.

The officers thus selected shall appoint a secretary, who is not required to be a shareholder.

Minutes shall be prepared and copies or extracts of the decisions shall be delivered and certified in accordance with the law.

ARTICLE 32 - ORDINARY GENERAL MEETINGS

An ordinary general meeting is empowered to take all decisions that exceed the powers of the Board of Directors and that do not amend the articles of association.

An ordinary general meeting shall be held at least once a year, within the time periods prescribed by the statutes and regulations in force, in order to vote on the financial statements for the previous financial year.

An ordinary general meeting can deliberate validly pursuant to a first notice of meeting only if the shareholders present, represented or voting by post hold at least one-fifth of the shares with voting rights. No quorum shall be required if the meeting is convened pursuant to a second notice of meeting.

Decisions of an ordinary general meeting shall be taken by a majority of the votes held by shareholders present, represented or voting by post.

ARTICLE 33 - EXTRAORDINARY GENERAL MEETINGS

Extraordinary general meetings have sole authority to amend all provisions of the articles of association. However, an extraordinary general meeting may not increase the obligations of shareholders, except in the event of transactions resulting from a consolidation of shares that have been properly carried out.

An extraordinary general meeting can deliberate validly pursuant to a first notice of meeting only if the shareholders present, represented or voting by post hold at least one-quarter of the shares with voting rights and, pursuant to a second notice of meeting, one-fifth of the shares with voting rights. If this latter quorum is not attained, the second meeting may be postponed to a date no later than two months after the date for which the second meeting was originally convened. For this postponed meeting, a quorum of one-fifth of the shares with voting rights shall also be required.

Decisions of extraordinary general meetings shall be taken by a two-thirds majority of the votes held by shareholders present, represented or voting by post, unless a statutory exception applies.

ARTICLE 34 - SPECIAL GENERAL MEETINGS

If there is more than one class of shares, changes may be made to the rights of the shares in one of those classes only by a vote in favour of the decision by an extraordinary general meeting open to all shareholders and, in addition, by a vote in favour of the decision by a special general meeting open only to the holders of shares of the relevant class.

A special general meeting can deliberate validly pursuant to a first notice of meeting only if the shareholders present or represented hold at least one-third of the shares with voting rights and, pursuant to a second notice of meeting, one-fifth of the shares with voting rights.

Otherwise, special general meetings shall be convened and shall vote in accordance with the same requirements as for extraordinary general meetings.

ARTICLE 35 – BONDHOLDERS’ MEETING

In the event of the issuance of bonds, the holders of these bonds are considered as a group, in accordance with legal requirements, for the defence of their shared interests.

This group is represented by one or more representatives elected at a general meeting of bondholders.

Should there be more than one group of bondholders, they may not transact business at the same general meeting.

ARTICLE 36 - FINANCIAL YEAR

ARTICLE 37 - STATEMENT OF ASSETS AND LIABILITIES - ANNUAL FINANCIAL STATEMENTS - CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

At the end of each financial year, the Board of Directors, in accordance with statutory and regulatory requirements in force, shall prepare the statement of assets and liabilities, the annual financial statements and, if applicable, the consolidated financial statements.

The Board of Directors shall prepare a management report containing the information required by law.

In addition, if applicable, it shall prepare a report on the management of the group.

All of these documents shall be made available to the statutory auditors in accordance with legal requirements.

ARTICLE 38 - ALLOCATION AND DISTRIBUTION OF PROFITS

The profit and loss statement, which summarises income and expenses for the financial year, shows the profit [or loss] for the financial year after deduction of all depreciation allowances and provisions.

An amount of at least five per cent shall be deducted from the profit for the financial year, reduced by prior losses, if any, in order to constitute the statutory reserve fund. Such deduction shall cease to be mandatory when the amount in the statutory reserve fund is equal to one-tenth of the share capital.

The distributable profit shall be made up of the profit for the financial year, reduced by prior losses and amounts to be booked as reserves in accordance with the law or the articles of association, and increased by profits carried forward.

From this profit, a general meeting may deduct any amounts it deems appropriate to allocate to the funding of any optional, ordinary or extraordinary reserve funds, or to carry forward.

The balance, if any, shall be apportioned by the general meeting among all shareholders in proportion to the number of shares they hold.

Furthermore, the general meeting may decide to distribute amounts withdrawn from the reserves available to it, expressly specifying the reserve funds from which the withdrawals are to be made. However, dividends shall first be withdrawn from the profits for the financial year.

Except if the share capital is reduced, no distribution may be made to the shareholders if shareholders' equity is, or as a result of such distribution would be reduced, below the amount of the share capital, increased by the amount of the reserves that the law or the articles of association do not allow to be distributed. Amounts booked as revaluation adjustments shall not be distributable. Such amounts may be capitalised in whole or in part.

After the financial statements have been approved by the general meeting, losses, if any, shall be carried forward and set off against profits earned in subsequent financial years until the losses are expunged.

ARTICLE 39 - PAYMENT OF DIVIDENDS - INTERIM DIVIDENDS

The procedures for paying cash dividends shall be set by a general meeting or, failing this, by the Board of Directors.

Cash dividends shall be paid no later than nine months after the end of the financial year, unless such time period is extended pursuant to court authorisation.

In the event that a balance sheet prepared during or at the end of the financial year and certified by the statutory auditors shows that since the end of the previous financial year the Company has generated a profit after necessary depreciation allowances and provisions have been booked, and after deducting, if applicable, previous losses and sums to be booked as reserves as required by law or the articles of association, interim dividends may be distributed before the financial statements have been approved. The amount of such interim dividends shall not exceed the amount of profit as defined above.

Shareholders shall not be required to reimburse dividends, except if the distribution was made in violation of the law and the Company proves that the beneficiaries knew, or under the circumstances could not have been unaware, of the improper nature of such distribution at the time it was made. An action for reimbursement, if applicable, shall be barred three years after the payment of such dividends.

Any claim for payment of dividends that is not made within five years after the distribution thereof shall be barred.

A general meeting may grant shareholders, for all or part of the dividend declared or of interim dividends, a choice between payment of the dividend in cash or in shares, in accordance with legal requirements.

ARTICLE 40 – DISTRIBUTION IN KIND

The Ordinary General Meeting may authorise the distribution of investment securities held by the company as dividends for the current financial year (including any interim dividend) or the distribution of reserves, premiums or any other items available comprising shareholders' equity.

The terms and conditions for this distribution will be determined by the General Meeting, or if the Meeting fails to do so, by the Board of Directors.

In accordance with Article 12.3 of the Articles of Association, the shareholders, where applicable, must take it upon themselves to obtain a whole number of investment securities thus allocated.

ARTICLE 41 - SHAREHOLDERS' EQUITY LESS THAN ONE-HALF OF SHARE CAPITAL

If, as a result of losses reported in the accounting documents, the Company's shareholders' equity falls below one-half of share capital, the Board of Directors shall, within four months following the approval of the financial statements showing such loss, convene an extraordinary general meeting to decide whether to dissolve the Company before the expiry of its term.

If it is decided not to dissolve the Company, subject to statutory provisions regarding the minimum capital for sociétés anonymes, and within the time period prescribed by law, share capital shall be reduced by an amount equal to the losses that cannot be set off against reserves if, within such period, shareholders' equity has not been restored to an amount equal to at least one-half of share capital.

In either case, the decision of the general meeting shall be published in accordance with statutory and regulatory requirements.

In the event of non-compliance with these requirements, any interested party may petition the Court to dissolve the Company. The same provision applies in the event that a general meeting is unable to vote validly.

However, the Court shall not order dissolution if, on the day it rules on the merits, the situation has been rectified.

ARTICLE 42 - CONVERSION OF THE COMPANY

The Company may be converted into another form of company if, at the time of the conversion, it has been in existence for at least two years and it has prepared a balance sheet covering its first two financial years and had it approved by the shareholders.

The decision to convert the Company [into another corporate form] shall be made pursuant to a report of the statutory auditors, who shall certify that shareholders' equity is at least equal to share capital.

Conversion of the Company into a société en nom collectif (general partnership) shall require the consent of all shareholders. In such case, the requirements set forth above shall not apply.

Conversion of the Company into a société en commandite simple (limited partnership) or a société en commandite par actions (limited partnership with shares) shall be decided in accordance with the requirements for amending the articles of association and shall require the consent of all shareholders who agree to become general partners.

Conversion into a société à responsabilité limitée (limited liability company) shall be decided in accordance with the requirements for amending the articles of association of companies of this type.

Conversion of the Company into a société par actions simplifiée (simplified joint stock company) or a société civile (non-trading company) shall be decided by a unanimous vote of the shareholders.

ARTICLE 43 - DISSOLUTION - LIQUIDATION

Except in the cases of court-ordered dissolution provided by law, the Company shall be dissolved at the end of the term specified in the articles of association or by a resolution adopted by an extraordinary general meeting.

One or more liquidators shall be appointed by such extraordinary general meeting, acting in accordance with the quorum and majority requirements for ordinary general meetings.

The liquidator shall represent the Company. The liquidator shall have the broadest possible powers to realize assets, including by entering into settlement agreements. The liquidator shall be authorised to pay creditors and distribute any available surplus.

A general meeting may authorise the liquidator to continue ongoing business or to initiate new business for the requirements of the liquidation.

At the end of the liquidation procedure, an ordinary general meeting of the shareholders shall be convened to vote on the final liquidation accounts, the discharge to be granted to the liquidator and the termination of his duties, and to certify completion of the liquidation procedure.

If such meeting is not convened, any shareholder may petition the Court to appoint a judicial representative to convene the meeting.

If the final general meeting is unable to vote validly or if it refuses to approve the liquidation accounts, the decision shall be taken by the Commercial Court acting pursuant to an application filed by the liquidator or any interested party.

Any shareholders' equity that remains after the par value of the shares has been repaid shall be apportioned among the shareholders in the same proportions as their share of share capital.

If all shares are held by a sole shareholder, the dissolution of the Company by Court decision at the request of a third party or pursuant to a declaration filed by the sole shareholder with the Commercial Court registry shall result in the conveyance of all corporate assets to the sole shareholder, without the need for a liquidation procedure. These provisions shall not apply if the sole shareholder is an individual.

ARTICLE 44 - DISPUTES

Any disputes that may arise during the Company's term or during its liquidation between the Company and the shareholders or directors or among the shareholders themselves relating to corporate matters shall be decided in accordance with French law and shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the competent French courts.
