

Press Release

Paris, 25 June 2015 –

Further to the announcement made by Géninfo (Groupe Société Générale) of its intention to sell 1.4 million shares in Sopra Steria Group following an accelerated bookbuilding offering with institutional investors, Sopra Steria Group decided to place an order for a maximum of 1.47% of Sopra Steria Group's share capital for a price equal to the placement price, in the context of its share buyback program in order to potentially award or sell shares to employees and/or company officers.

Additionally, Géninfo also received from Sopra GMT (Pasquier and Odin families and the historical Managers), an interest to place an order for a maximum of 3.43% of Sopra Steria Group's share capital for a price equal to the placement price.

This transaction has been presented to the Autorité des Marchés Financiers (AMF) in accordance with article 234-7 from the "Règlement Général". During its June 23, 2015 session, the AMF noted that this transaction will not entail the filing of a mandatory takeover bid.

Following the full disposal of the Geninfo stake in Sopra Steria Group, Geninfo, Sopra GMT and the founders will no longer act in concert and the shareholders' agreement will be terminated, not affecting the existing concert on Axway. The other existing shareholders' agreements between Sopra GMT, the founders and some managers on one hand, and between Sopra GMT and Soderi on the other hand, are not modified.

Société Générale Corporate & Investment Banking is Sole Bookrunner on this transaction.
