Sopra Group finalises its acquisition project of Business Architects International

Sopra Group and Business Architects International (BAI) finalised today the acquisition by Sopra Group of BAI's activities in Europe. This acquisition reinforces the Group's European positioning in the financial services sector.

Sopra Group has finalised the acquisition, in cash, of 100% of the share capital of Business Architects International NV. The company will be consolidated in the Group's financial statements as of 1 October 2007.

BAI's geographic positioning and professional expertise in the "solutions for loans" domain complements Sopra Group's own offering and, in particular, permits the Group to continue to develop its European positioning as well as reinforce its financial solutions software suite, Evolan™.

The financial terms of this transaction have not been disclosed.

About Business Architects International
